CATHOLIC WOMEN-NEWSPAPER SUISSE – TRUE FREMALENESS

Catholic Women-Newspaper Suisse,
Nr. 28, July 11, 1903, Page 217-218.

True Femininity excludes all bad and evil habits and needs a deep, rich inner world, a spiritual sense and a heart full of love. True femininity excludes any kind of seeking to get news and to reveal family secrets and ratios without deliberation and fear. True femininity and the need to talk cannot exist side by side. Ruffianly is the blabbers and unstable the curiously.

True femininity is never wanton and wild in games and zest and forgets never those in her joy, who are doing without.

True femininity expresses itself in a constant kindness towards others. She is the outflow of the all embracing human gift and benevolence. To be friendly, when everyone is fine or then when we are happy and in joy, is without any value and is not rooted in a general benevolence.

True femininity is a attentiveness, sacrifice and serviceability which can't be counted. Life asks from our feminine sex countless sacrifices; we have to give them, otherwise we loose our peace! Serviceability and attentiveness are the preschools for being able to sacrifice. Those who do not train them, experience in every bigger sacrifice always the double heavy weight.

True femininity looks always for peace in her surrounding and is able to say the first kind word, even when others are still angry. (...)

True femininity doesn't make a lot of noise, will not be found on the markets of the world, because she includes the sense of domesticity, modesty and retiredness.

True femininity is moderate in any kind of consumption (or gender), active without rest, because the duties of the women demands for constant work. (...)

True femininity is receptive for any beauty and nobility; she strives to inner value without which the feminine attitude will be poor, even if she possesses all the wealth of the world!

True femininity is a wonderful Spring-flower, which never wilt, even if she dies and will blossom in the other world as a divine rose!
